Section A: Comprehension

What is Thanksgiving?

In the United States of America Thanksgiving Day is the 4th Thursday in November. It is a public holiday, so schools, banks, shops and offices are closed. Thanksgiving was the first holiday celebrated in America. It was first celebrated in the autumn of 1621 when the Wampanoag Indians and the Pilgrims got together for a three-day feast.

The Pilgrims were a small group of people who sailed to North America in order to start a new life. They sailed on a ship called the Mayflower and landed on Plymouth Rock.

The Indians, or Native Americans, were the people living in America before the pilgrims arrived. They helped the pilgrims and shared their food with them.

The Turkey Tree House

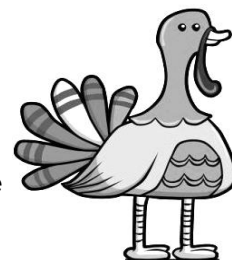

Thanksgiving was just a week away. Terrance knew that he must act fast. He needed a plan. He decided to hide in the woods. The farm just wasn't a safe place this time of year. He packed a few things and headed out. He passed the barn, the pig pen, and the tractor. It began to get dark. He needed to find a place to sleep.

He found a nice oak tree that was hollow at the bottom. It would make a nice home for him this week. Terrance walked in and to his surprise; the tree was bigger than he thought it would be. He kept walking and walking down what seemed to be a long tunnel.

He saw a light up ahead. He heard voices. He slowly and quietly went forward toward the light and the voices. Suddenly, he found himself in a large underground room. There, in front of him stood turkeys of all shapes and sizes.

They had each found their way to the tree over the years just before Thanksgiving. They asked Terrance to stay and live with them too. He agreed and is still living there to this day.

Each year, about this time, a new friend or two joins them in the turkey tree house.

Talking Turkeys - Adapted from a poem by Benjamin Zephaniah

1 Be nice to your turkeys this Christmas,
Cos' turkeys just want to have fun
Turkeys are cool, turkeys are wicked
And every turkey has a mum.

5 Be nice to your turkeys this Christmas,
Don't eat it, keep it alive,

It could be your mate, and not on your plate
Say, Yo! Turkey I'm on your side.

9 I have lots of friends who are turkeys
And all of them fear Christmas time,
They want to enjoy it, they say humans
destroyed it

And humans are out of their mind.

13 Yeah, I have lots of friends who are turkeys

They all have a right to a life,

Not to be caged up and genetically made up

By any farmer and his wife.

17 Turkeys just want to play reggae

Turkeys just want to hip-hop.

Can you imagine a nice young turkey

Saying, "I cannot wait for the chop."

21 Turkeys like getting presents,

They want to watch Christmas TV,

Turkeys have brains and turkeys feel pain

In many ways just like you and me.

25 I once knew a turkey called ... Turkey

He said, "Benji, explain to me please,

Who put the turkey in Christmas

And what happens to Christmas trees?"

29 I said, "I am not too sure, Turkey

But it's nothing to do with Christmas Mass.

Humans get greedy and waste more than need be

And businessmen make loads of cash."

33 Be nice to your turkey this Christmas

Invite them indoors for some greens

Let them eat cake and let them partake

In a plate of organic grown beans.

37 Be nice to your turkey this Christmas

And spare them the cut of the knife,

Join Turkeys United and they'll be delighted

And you will make new friends "FOR LIFE."
