Justin Bieber – His Rise to Fame

1   Justin Bieber was born in Ontario, Canada on March 1, 1994. Justin was raised by his mother, Pattie, who was only 17 when he was born. As a young boy, Justin enjoyed playing hockey, soccer and music and taught himself to play the guitar, piano and drums. When Pattie realised that Justin had musical talent, she began to upload videos of him singing on YouTube. Justin's videos caught the attention of pop star Usher, who was impressed with the young singer and signed him to his record company.

2   In 2009, Justin made his debut performance on popular television shows such as "Good Morning America" and "Today". He even sang for President Obama at the White House for Christmas. By this time, Bieber was well-known as a teenage heart-throb with his streetwise style including backward hats, hoodies, dog chains and colourful sneakers. Justin's popular hits are "Despacito" and "I don't care".

3   Justin is a mega-influencer on social media, with over 100 million followers on Instagram, 40 million subscribers on YouTube and a further 70 million on Facebook. Fans of Justin Bieber are referred to as "Beliebers". In addition to making music, Bieber also invests his money in technology companies and gives to charities that help build schools in developing nations.

4 Over the years, Bieber has been arrested for reckless driving, vandalism and drug use. Being world famous at the age of 16, resulted in him struggling to cope with the pressures of fame.

5 With the support of family and friends, including his wife, Hailey Baldwin, the star has managed to turn his life around. Whether you love him or hate him, Justin Bieber is a global super star.
